FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Petitioner (CARES # [REDACTED]) is a resident of Sheboygan County.
2. In April, 2013, the Petitioner applied for FS benefits. She was approved for benefits based on $0 income. She was approved for the maximum monthly benefits for a household size of 2 at $367/month.

3. On May 13, 2013, the Petitioner started receiving unemployment compensation benefits of $363/week.
4. On April 18, 2013, the agency issued a Notice of Decision to the Petitioner informing her that effective June 1, 2013, her FS benefits would be reduced to $16/month due to increased unearned income.
5. The Petitioner pays no regular rental expense.
6. On May 29, 2013, the Petitioner filed an appeal with the Division of Hearings and Appeals.

DISCUSSION

In determining the amount of FS to be issued each month, the agency must budget all of the recipient's nonexempt income. 7 C.F.R. §273.9(b). From that income, certain deductions are allowed. The deductions include a standard deduction, which currently is $149 per month for a two-person household. 7 C.F.R. §273.9(d)(1); FoodShare Wisconsin Handbook, Appendix 4.6.2. Another deduction is the earned income deduction, which equals 20% of the household's total earned income. 7 C.F.R. §273.9(d)(2); FoodShare Wisconsin Handbook, App. 4.6.3. A third possible deduction is for medical expenses exceeding $35 in a month for elderly or disabled persons. 7 C.F.R. §273.9(d)(3); FoodShare Wisconsin Handbook, App. 4.6.4. A fourth deduction is for child/dependent care. 7 C.F.R. §273.9(d)(4); FoodShare Wisconsin Handbook, App. 4.6.6. The final deduction is for shelter expenses; the deduction is equal to the excess expense above 50% of net income remaining after other deductions. 7 C.F.R. §273.9(d)(5); FoodShare Wisconsin Handbook, App. 4.6.7.

In a fair hearing concerning the sufficiency of FS issued, the burden of proof is on the Department to demonstrate that it correctly computed the petitioner's FS allotments, and the petitioner must then rebut this evidence with her own evidence showing the agency was incorrect.

In this case, the Petitioner does not dispute the agency's calculations. She does not dispute the unearned income budgeted by the agency. She indicated that filed the appeal because the monthly allotment is not sufficient. I recognize the Petitioner's concerns. However, she requests equitable relief from the regulations that I am not authorized to grant. I have reviewed the evidence, including the budget screens and other information from the agency and the Petitioner and find the agency properly determined the Petitioner's monthly FS allotment.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The agency properly determined the Petitioner's FS benefits effective June 1, 2013.

THEREFORE, it is ORDERED

That the petition be, and hereby is, dismissed.
